

Planning your Course – Mental Health Template

The following questions about mental health should be answered for your course

How do your course policies support or impede mental health and wellness?

How can you maintain reasonable expectations for student learning within the constraints of the course?

How can teaching and learning activities be structured to foster mental health and wellness for students?

How might you promote or support student resilience?